

Canon Scan Front 220

Speed: Up to 26 ppm

The scanners in the Network category take document scanners to a new class of their own, in terms of scanning innovation and workflow efficiency. These sleek, extremely compact standalone scanners can plug directly into your office network to deliver direct network scanning and sending.

Features

- Impressive double duty document scanner with Scan-to-Projector functionality, as well as Scan to Email, Scan to Folder, Scan to FTP and Scan to USB Memory
 - Personal, shared and LDAP Address books
 - Letter-size color duplex network scanner
 - Large 8.5 inch color touch panel screen
 - Customizable Job buttons
 - Easy remote scanner management
 - Robust security features
 - Advanced image processing
 - Impressive document handling flexibility
 - Fast, high quality, reliable 26 pages per minute (35 ipm)*
- Compact design – 12.2” x 9.21” footprint & 7.5 lbs.

Expanding productivity even further, the ScanFront 220 is taking Canon’s document scanners to a new class of their own, in terms of scanning innovation and workflow efficiency. This sleek, extremely compact standalone unit can plug directly into your office network to deliver direct network scanning and sending. The ScanFront 220 offers state-of-the-art imaging technology and a user-friendly interface with full touch-screen convenience.

The ScanFront 220 is a LTR-size color duplex network scanner featuring a large 8.5 inch color touch screen, capable of fast, high quality scanning up to 26 pages per minute (35 ipm)*. This device scans directly to e-mail, FTP, shared-folders, and USB memory. You can choose from personal and shared address books and customize Job Buttons. Boasting robust security features this scanner has easy remote scanner management.

